McHale thanks friends for help in Appomattox

Editor:

I wish to thank all of those individuals who have assisted me in my role as Marketing and Distributive Education coordinator for Appomattox County High School. I have accepted a position with the McGraw-Hill Book Company and will therefore be leaving Appomattox and terminating my teaching career. It is has been a pleasure working with the students, parents, businesses, and school faculty and administration of Appomattox County. The cooperation and support of all phases of the program has been tremendous.

I appreciate your faith in me and the Marketing and Distributive Education program. I truly believe that your encouragement of this educational program has allowed it to become one of the finest in the state of Virginia. I trust that I will be hearing great things about the Appomattox DE Department, and I am very pleased to have been associated with it.

Again, it has been my pleasure to have served the students of Appomattox County and I wish you all much happiness.

Sincerely,
John P. McHale, Coordinator
